John,

I'm doing a MOD to extend to April 10, 2019. That should adjust the RDD Score. When the mod goes through if it doesn't change let me know and I'll email Tim Atwell.

Is April 10 still the correct date?

Anna

We were looking up our RDD score and we are listed as being late on the Holloman 200 Tricon V units. This is a project we were protested early and were requested to hold off deliveries for a period of time. The final extension requested by Pete was until 4/10 and deliveries were completed by 4/8.

If you could assist in having our score show an on time delivery for this contract it would be greatly appreciated.

Thanks

Anna,

Due to the protest at the outset and subsequent delivery hold requested by Holloman AFB, we'd like to get an extension on this project until April 10th, 2019. We've delivered 130 of 200 units with 35 more en route and we anticipate shipping all the units by beginning of April to meet the April 10th date.

Please advise.

Thank You

Peter Ellis
